

HERALD

William Thompson and Harvey Probst, Fort Lewis College groundsmen, are preparing the ice-skating area for public use in December 1964. The area was the old city reservoir, located north of the campus.

The World Beyond Durango

Following are the page(s) of the same document that are colored in the original, here scanned in full color.

We also presented this document in black and white, to improve your access to its content. The b/w scan is OCR'd (optical character recognition), something that is not possible with the color scan.

City Clerk's Office/ Records

HERALD

William Thompson and Harvey Probst, Fort Lewis College groundsmen, are preparing the ice-skating area for public use in December 1964. The area was the old city reservoir, located north of the campus.

The World Beyond Durango